Note: If you are divorced and remarried, or are divorced and planning to remarry, or if you are Catholic and were not married in the Catholic Church, you must undertake to have your present marriage blessed by the Catholic Church, or if planning to remarry, have the disposition of any former marriage or marriages cleared by the Church, which may entail a process on your part, and on the part of the Church before you can receive any of the Catholic Sacraments. The Catholic Church takes great care to handle these cases with Christian love, understanding and sensitivity.

For any previous marriages for you or your spouse please contact Linda Fierro in the parish office for clarification and assistance. All information is confidential.

Thank You and God Bless.
