Jesus Brings New Life

A Sad Time for Peter

Peter and Grandma Carson were visiting on her front porch. He saw his friends Carlos and Ian running toward them. They looked upset.

“What’s wrong?” Peter asked.

“A car hit Rusty in front of your house,” Carlos said.

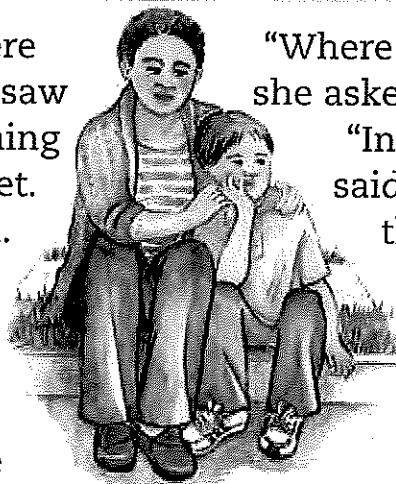

“We think he’s dead,” Ian added.

The three boys ran down the block. Peter’s mom was kneeling next to Rusty. Peter looked at Rusty lying in the street. One paw stuck up in the air. Wind blew his long red fur.

“He ran in front of a car,” Mom said to Peter as she gave him a hug. “The lady stopped. She felt so bad.”

Peter’s throat felt so tight that he couldn’t say anything. Peter’s friends didn’t know what to say. Grandma arrived and put her hand on Peter’s shoulder.

Later that day, Peter went to visit Grandma. She sat down on the curb next to him.

“Where will you bury Rusty?” she asked.

“In the backyard,” Peter said. He felt an ache in his throat again. “Mom said I can get another dog, but I don’t want another dog. I want Rusty.” Tears filled his eyes.

“I know,” Grandma said.

She put her arm around Peter. “You have a sad place inside you about Rusty. Someday, the happy memories will push away some of the sadness you feel. I liked to watch him run to catch your frisbee.”

“Yeh, he was a smart dog,” Peter said and smiled a little.

“Let’s dig up a flower for you to plant on Rusty’s grave,” Grandma said.

Life After Death

Jesus’ Resurrection is different from how Lazarus came back to life. Lazarus’s body would die again. In his risen body, Jesus will live forever.

Jesus has opened Heaven to us. If we follow Jesus, we will live forever in Heaven after we die. When we pray the Lord’s Prayer, God helps us become more like him. Becoming more like God will help us get to Heaven.
